Beloved One

Do do do do, do do do do,
Do do doodle do, doodle do do.

Beloved One, I sing to thee
Right here now in this holy hour
Beloved One, I sing to thee
Like a hummingbird sings to a flower
Like a mountain high and pure, clear water
Flowing down to the sea, does my love flow to thee.

And the Light of my Soul guides my way home
And the Light of my Soul guides my way home
And the Light of my Soul guides my way home.

Beloved One, I sing to thee
Like the wind through the pines gently blowing
Beloved one, I sing to thee
Like the moon on the snow, diamond glowing
Like a brilliant blue sky, where an eagle flies
Gently kissed by the sun, in the Light we are One.

And the love of my Soul guides my way home
And the love of my Soul guides my way home
And the love of my Soul guides my way home.

Do do do do, do do do do,
Do do doodle do, doodle do.
And the love of my Soul guides my way home
And the love of my Soul guides my way home
And the love of my Soul guides my way home.

There is no God, but God

Alleluiah, Alleluiah, ala illaha illa lah, Alleluiah.

I can remember, when I was here before
I can see clearly, when you are here
You looked so wealthy, dressed in your beggar's cloak
I was so poor that I didn't know

But you stood above me there when the angry crowd
Tried to take my life --
Only when I closed my eyes
Did I really know you.
There I was, singing soft and low
And You sang it

Alleluiah, Alleluiah, ala illaha illa lah, Alleluiah.

There was a time when I could have been with you
Given the choice to live or to die
I took my chance and drank from the bitter cup
Tasting the world I died again.

But you stood above me there till the cup was dry
Hearing me call you name --
Only when I finally died
Did I really find you.
There I was sitting right beside you,
And I sang

Alleluiah, Alleluiah, ala illaha illa lah, Alleluiah.

I can remember when I was here before
I can see clearly when you are here
You looked so wealthy dressed in your beggar's cloak
Will I leave poor, or will I return?

For you've been a-waiting here since those ancient times
Hearing me call your name
Only when I die each day, will I really find you
Well here I am, living right inside you,
And we sing

Alleluiah, Alleluiah, ala illaha illa lah, Alleluiah, Alleluiah, Alleluiah.

John-Roger

I have seen you sitting silently
In the golden hills of Galilee
And I know that he's gone
But he still lives on through you.

Chorus:
And I can always feel when you're near me
And like a lamb who's lost and alone
You always bring me home.
And I've wandered far to be with you
So let's sing together one last song
And then we'll travel on.

Like a willow tree against the wind
You weathered all the storms they gave to him
And pure as the dove
You only returned them your love.

Chorus.

And I saw him giving you the crown
Saw your eyes as he was looking down
And even the nails in the jails couldn't hold back his cause
And now you are everything that he was.

Chorus.

And I'm learning fast the Traveler's ways
Learning how to live from day to day
And as I see more of you I see more of who I am.

Chorus, repeated twice.

Little Heart

Oh, awaken little heart
To the one who you've been
Searching for from the start
You know that he's
Within you, little heart
And know that he's with you.

Oh little heart
As you enter into this life
Remember, this world is not your home
There's a greater place inside you
Where the Traveler Is there to guide you home.

And oh, awaken little heart
To the one who you've been
Searching for from the start
You know that he's
Within you, little heart
You know that he's with you.

And soon you'll find
That the world passes so quickly
And surely, there is so much to learn
They may not understand you
You may not always see the way
Beloved, endure until the end.

And oh, awaken little heart
To the one who you've been
Searching for from the start
You know that he's
Within you, little heart
You know that he's with you.

Watching you grow
I see so much of me
In your games of make believe
And the answers we shall find
Watching you grow.

You're doing all those things
That 'I took so long to learn
And it fills my heart with joy
Watching you grow,

I know for sure.

Soon you will be awakened loving heart
By the one who you've been
Searching for from the start
You know that he's
Within you, loving heart
You know that he's with you.

Awaken, loving heart
To the one who you've been
Searching for from the start
You know that he's
Within you, loving heart
You know that he's with you.
